Mayor's Diary

Councillor Tracy Willis has continued to work hard for the town and has now attended over 200 events on behalf of the people of Seaford. In order to raise the profile of our town she has recently invited both the Lord Lieutenant and the High Sheriff of East Sussex to Seaford to be shown around and meet some of the residents, she has also regularly attended meetings of the Seaford Chamber of Commerce. The Mayor has also had meetings with Mayors of nearby towns to discuss local issues. (see picture)

Seaford's Young People Shine!

Seaford has an active group of youngsters who regularly work hard for the community whether it be part of the Seaford Youth Forum or volunteer lifeguards. At a recent award ceremony a number of these young people were awarded for their services. Amongst those rewarded by the Mayor were 17 year old George Stonehouse who arranges Life Guard cover for Seaford Beach, 12 year old Dom Polling who is one of the top swimmers in the country and Natalie Bird who achieved no less than 13 A* grades for her GCSEs and also found time to get a Duke of Edinburgh award.

Young Mayor

The youth of our town is represented by the Seaford Young Mayor who this year is 16 year old Ellie Homan who was previously the Deputy Young Mayor. Ellie has already attended a number of events including laying a wreath at the Remembrance Day Parade. The Deputy Young Mayor for 2010/11 is Maddie Jay. Both are members of Seaford Head Community College.
