The Mayor's Mad March Marathon

The Marathon certainly lived up to its name—March was a whirlwind of community and fundraising events supporting my chosen charity this year— WAVES Family Support Service of Church Street, Seaford. I would like to thank all the organisations, businesses and groups that supported me in my final push to raise funds and awareness for WAVES FSS, it was fun, frantic and exhausting!

The Seaford Chamber of Commerce, NPS Lions and Lionesses, Seahaven Dance, Seaford Musical Theatre Juniors, The Bishopstone Village Hall and Horticulture Association, Seaford Constitutional Club, M & Co, Seaford Town Councillors and Staff, the Seaford Young Mayor and Deputy, the Wellness Centre, Mickfield Nursery, Royal Society of St George, the Seaford Family Focus Group, Seaford Town Football and Rugby Clubs, Seaford Lecture and Literary Club, Seaford Horticultural Society, Kevin Gordon (Seaford Historian and Tour Guide) and Arts@theCrypt Committee. Thank you all for your sponsored hops, quiz nights, band evenings, sporting events and so much more!

Well over three thousand pounds was raised, which is a tremendous result, and I'd also like to thank all the members of the public who came to support each and every event that was held.

April is looking very skinny in comparison with its neighbour but I know I will have as much fun supporting local organisations and charities and representing Seaford to the best of my ability.

If anyone would like me, or my Deputy, Councillor Sylvia Dunn, to attend a local event, please do not hesitate to contact the Seaford Town Council office on 01323 894870.

Until next time!

Councillor Linda Wallraven, Mayor of Seaford.

The Seaford Young Mayor's Scheme and Awards win

British Youth Council
Awards 2012

The Seaford Town Council Young Mayor's Scheme and the Seaford Young Mayor's Awards have won the British Youth Council Innovation Award and Inspiring Project Award as part of their Youth On Board scheme. The scheme celebrates organisations and projects that support youth participation in innovative and exciting ways and marks the fantastic achievements that can happen because young people are supported to get involved.

The Inspiring Project Award recognises efforts made by projects to engage young people and give them a voice and the Innovation Award celebrates new ideas and practices that have made a real difference to how organisations work with young people.

Seaford Town Council started the Young Mayor scheme in 2009 with the first young Mayor of Seaford, Oscar Hardy. Ellie Homan was the second young Mayor and the current Young Mayor, Maddie Jay, has just handed over the medal of office to her Deputy, Amy Gough. The scheme encourages young people to become more involved in their town, to understand the issues of local young people and to represent these views to the Council and other groups and organisations. All of the Young Mayors and their Deputies have been involved in local projects including the skate park, Base art work, emergency services awareness, Seaford Youth Forum and most recently helped to secure funding for the 'all ages' green gym equipment currently being installed in the Salts recreation park. They held their second annual Awards Evening for young people last week which was sponsored by the Keith Baker Charitable Trust.

The incoming Seaford Young Mayor, Amy Gough, and her newly elected Deputy, Georgia Colyer, will be setting their objectives for 2011/12 shortly and would like to hear from other young people in Seaford with their views and comments. They can be contacted through the Seaford Town Council Facebook or Twitter page, email admin@seafordtowncouncil.gov.uk or telephone 01323 894870.

No Cold Calling introduced Seaford-wide

A No Cold Calling Zone covering the whole of Seaford was launched on March 24. The scheme was introduced at the Neighbourhood Watch AGM after the organisation teamed up with Sussex Police, Trading Standards (ESCC) and Seaford Town Council to set up the project. Residents attending the launch at the Crossways Centre had the opportunity to hear more about the scheme and talk to people about crime prevention, home security and get advice from Trading Standards.

The Seaford No Cold Calling Zone will be the first in the county to reflect residents wishes that charities and other fundraisers can continue to call providing they have been granted a licence.

If a member of the public wishes to verify the validity of a caller's licence they should contact Seaford Town Council.

Improvements at the Crypt are continuing and Seaford Town Council is delighted to offer the venue for hire at a very reasonable cost for exhibitors and community groups. The signage has just been fitted and has drawn very positive comments.
