Welcome to the July edition of the last newsletter a lot has

On 30th April we held our annual Church with a new revised for voluntary organisations who have a community information and we had to get more chairs one who attended. It was a success, next year we will repeat more time; and we will print a can have one! Thank you to

The new Mayor of Seaford, he has had many events to Veterans and Armed Forces in July as well as various other on page 2.

On the seafront, new mixed bins installed following requests for warm weather recently has additional capacity. We will be District Council who empty the seafront and would encourage any rubbish if bins are full.

There has also been many where very talented artists have forthcoming events are on page

Seaford Family Fun Day

On Sunday 21 July Seaford Family Fun Day 2013 took place. Seaford Family Fun Day was organised by Seaford Town Council, Seaford Football Club and the Rotary Club of Seaford Martello.

This year there was a record 42 community and charity groups. Also there were food stalls selling a range of food from the Seaford Rotary Tavern in the Tent that kept everyone hydrated.

There was also a fun fair and Visitors were able to enjoy a range of activities including step aerobics, Karate, street dancing, kick boxing and more.
