Seaford Town Council

NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2012

St. James' Trust

Seaford Down's Syndrome and
Special Needs Support Group

The Mayor of Seaford's
Supported Charities for 2012/13.

Freeman of the Town Of
Seaford Mr Laurie Holland with his wife Rosemary.

Freedom of the Town of Seaford

The first Honorary Freedom of the Town awards were decided by the Town Council in May 2012 and were officially conferred on Sunday September 30 2012 to Laurie Holland and Don Mabey.

Laurie Holland has long standing history of service to the town of Seaford. Initially through his work in the Treasurer's Department culminating as Treasurer to Seaford Urban District Council and Assistant Treasurer to Lewes District Council before his retirement. He later served as a councillor on both Lewes District Council and Seaford Town Council. Laurie is also very well known for his voluntary work in the town. He is President of both Seaford Lifeguards and Seaford Museum & Heritage Society. He has for many years undertaken key roles with Seaford Baptist Church, Sussex Table Tennis Association and is a keen member of Seaford Stamp Club amongst other things. Laurie is often described as "Mr Seaford"

Don Mabey moved to Seaford in 1985 from Surrey, at 92 years old and he remains a keen fundraiser for RAFA Charities, having raised tens of thousands of pounds over the years. He is the President of the Seahaven RAFA, a position he has held for many years, anyone with any association to military events will know Don. He is a founder member and Honorary President of the Royal Society of St George Seahaven Branch, another charitable organisation in which Don and others raise money to support local good causes. In his spare time Don still enjoys his golfing and is a regular player and President of Seaford Head Golf Club as well as maintaining his membership at a course in Surrey.

The First Freedom of the Town Ceremony for Seaford Town Council took place at St Leonard's Church, Seaford on Sunday 30 September at the invitation of the Mayor of Seaford, Councillor Linda Wallraven. Following the service a short parade took place in Broad Street and High Street, where members of the public were invited to line the streets to witness the celebration of this historic event. Following the parade, invited guests joined the new Freemen for a cream tea at Seaford Head Lower School.
